

Voices Literary Magazine
2017 Named Best in State

—
Six Students Win Individual Awards at State Conference

—
Cover & Art Finalists for Design of the Year in National Competition

Voices, Nation Ford High School's 2017 student literary magazine, earned top awards at the state and national levels scholastic press associations announced in October.

The National Scholastic Press Association has announced Voices literary magazine has two finalists in the 2017 Design of the Year competition. The cover, designed by 2017 graduate Justin McGuirl, and the artwork of 2017 graduate Liesl Juell that appears on the cover are among the top 10 in the nation as finalists.

The overall winner in each category will be selected from the list of finalists at the NSPA conference Nov. 16-19 in Dallas, Texas.

Voices 2017 also earned an All-State rating and was named Best in State, the top magazine for the year, at the South Carolina Scholastic Press Association Fall Conference on Oct. 2 at the University of South Carolina in Columbia.

Individual students won the awards:
Best Cover Design, Justin McGuirl
First place for Fiction, Sydney Long
First place for Nonfiction, Madelyn Levassiur
Second place for Poetry, Samantha McNeil
Second place for Art, Leisl Juell
Third place for Spread Design, Kat Stiles